DRESSES AND SUITS

for Fall are arriving almost daily. And such pretty new styles and colors, too.

The fall suits are really the most practical and at the same time the prettiest that we have ever seen. They are here in abundance, too—every shade and style—the newest and smartest styles. There's a "Pekin Blue" suit that is simply adorable—a sensible cut in a Silver-tone—there also are several odd suits in mixed material which will appeal to madly who cares for something different. Then, too—the plaids. Every color—every style—we are so sure that we have a suit which will appeal to you here that you just must step in and see them.

The dresses, too, are chic and pretty. There are Serges and Silk Combinations—and then there are late arrivals in Jersey.

Yesterday's express brought us a shipment of muslin undergarments—not just plain "muslin" but of a soft silken texture that will appeal to you. Our line of silk undergarments is just a little more complete and is just bound to please you who love pretty things.

The ELITE prices are very reasonable—perhaps we can make just a little better prices because we have no charge accounts.

We want you to know us—we wish that you would drop in, informally, when down-town—even if it is just to look around—we'll be very glad to see you.

THE SERVICE FLAG

Dear little flag in the window there Hung with a tear and a solemn prayer:

Child of Old Glory, born with a star On what a wonderful flag you are!

Blue is your star in its field of white Dugged in the soil that was long of fight!

Born of the blood that one man bears To raise your mother, the flag overhead.

And now you've come in this frenzied day To speak from a window—to speak and say:

"I am the voice of a soldier who Came to be gone 'til the winter's over."

I am the flag of the service, you The flag of his mother—just speak for her:

Who stands by my window and waits and waits But looks from the others for any news:

I am the flag of the service who wait For the safe return of a brother mate,

A mate gone forth while the war goes on:

To save from sacrifice other men's wives.

I am the flag of the service who wait The often thoughts of—the ones whose hearts are:

And the flag of a mother's son And won't come down till the victory's won!"

Dear little flag in the window there Hung with a tear and a woman's voice:

Child of Old Glory, born with a star On what a wonderful flag you are!

Benefit for the Red Cross

The following straightforward program was given for a number of children in the city. Funds received from the insertion of Mrs. Jessie Brown in the Young Men's Christian Association of the First Methodist Church for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The program was splendidly given and will probably be repeated in the future. Nineteen dollars was donated for the benefit of the Red Cross.

A unique feature of the program was the selling of a lot and houses built for the Red Cross, which netted the sum of $225. These sales were the gift of Mrs. William Swallow of Matagorda.

Ada Henderson Mission Band.

How Many Kinds of Sugar Are There?

When you are sugar, you mean that white crystallized sugar which comes in bags. But there are many kinds of sugar. All sugar consists of cane sugar, but it is not the only sugar. It is made by many methods.

If you never eat sugar, you would think there was only one kind of sugar, but there are many kinds of sugar.

There are white granulated sugars, brown sugars, brown molasses, molasses, maple syrup, honey, molasses, etc.
